

Criminal Justice Training Center

Advanced Police Training-www.Macomb.edu

Instructor Development:

Instructional Teaching Techniques

This 32 hour training program is designed provide basic and advanced instructional techniques, as well as forms a solid base for New and Experienced Instructors enhancing the abilities to:

Speak in Public Forums

Organize Classes

Use PowerPoint and other forms of media for instruction

Enhance the appearance of their presentations

Learn to work as the only primary instructor or in unison with other instructors

Requires very basic knowledge of computer programs: MS Word – MS PowerPoint

Each student should bring a laptop with MS Word and MS PowerPoint

Note this course meets the MSCTC requirements for Corrections Academy Instructors

July 24-26, 2017

8:00 am – 6:30 pm Central Time

Instructors: Craig Pulvirenti, Roseville PD (retired) and/or

Sgt. Bill Pace, Macomb County Sheriff Office

Both MCJTC Staff Instructor Trainers

Location:

Dickinson County Sheriff Office.

300 E D St.

Iron Mountain Michigan 49801

Tuition:

$350.00

Registration:

Lt. Bryan Price

906 774 6270

bryanprice@dickinsoncountymi.gov

Note: No shows will be billed tuition plus $25 registration fee if cancellation is not made five business days before seminar start date.