

Training Council "RECAP"

Fall 2024

By: Michael Grodi, CEO/Executive Secretary

Welcome to the fall edition of the RECAP. The leaves are changing and its certainly getting cooler in our great state, and for many of us this is our favorite time of the year in Michigan. Just a friendly reminder to make sure and submit your 3rd quarter booking fees. If you are having any difficulty with the submission, please contact Administrative Assistant Erika Young at eyoung@msctc.org for assistance.

This has been an exciting end of summer and fall season here at the MSCTC. The Jail Command Academy is starting with a full roster of participants from around the state. This training is being held at Treetops Resort in beautiful Gaylord, this should be an amazing time of the year to be up there for a great educational experience. For a full list of the fall training opportunities please visit our website.

Thank you again for everything that you do and enjoy this beautiful fall weather. Stay Safe.

Mike Grodi CEO/Executive Secretary, MSCTC

Couple Reminders

1. The Recognition of Prior Training and Experience packets must be submitted 30 days prior to the start of the chosen correction academy to process in a timely manner.
2. Officers have 12 months from date of hire to complete the Local Corrections Officer Academy. We will only grant grace periods for those who are on military, medical or parental leave. Please let us know if you have any questions.
